

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 26, 2007

Don't Miss It!

The Charleston Artist Guild Gallery's April Demonstration and Lecture Series

Plan a day in historic downtown Charleston, have lunch, then meet and see award-winning artists create a treasure or hear an informative art lecture.

Caroline Street Trickey, last year's first place Piccolo Spoleto's award winner, will be the artist demonstrator on Friday, April 13 from 11:00 am till 1:00 pm. Caroline hails from Cleveland, Ohio, where she was the pupil of Jose Sintron. Known for her lovely Charleston street scenes, Trickey paints and teaches watercolor. Other mediums she works in include gouache and oil. Come see Caroline paint her lively style!

On Friday, April 27, from 1:30 pm to 3:30 pm, Kelly Hazel will demonstrate painting with watercolors, her favorite medium. Hazel was last year's Flower Town Festival winner. Her light dappled watercolors are favorites in the Gallery. Kelly beautifully captures the uniqueness of Charleston. Your chance to see exactly how she does it!

Suffering from Art-phobia? Afraid to hang art on just painted walls; which look like the Sahara Desert? The Charleston Artist Guild Gallery is offering a Designer Lecture Series to help you solve your design woes about art. The lecture will be held on April 18, from 11:00 am until 12:00 noon.

Marian Chatfield, ASID, will be the featured lecturer at the Charleston Artist Guild Gallery. Marian's work can be viewed first hand in this year's Charleston Symphony Showhouse. Marian will speak about color for art, hanging art, and how to use art in design. The lecture will be limited to twenty people, so call the Gallery, 722-2425, and reserve a seat. Bring your personal questions and spring into design with your new art savvy.

The Charleston Artist Guild is located at 6 N. Atlantic Wharf off East Bay Street and across from a convenient parking lot.

Contact: Robert G. Ingram, Executive Director 843-722-2454, or the gallery at 843-722-2425, for more information.

Charleston Artist Guild, a non-profit organization

###