

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

January 7, 2008

ARTISTS SUPPORTING ARTISTS

Every local artist, whatever their choice of media to express themselves, contributes to the cultural life of the Charleston community. Members of the Charleston Artist Guild will be using their visual creativity to support their fellow artists, the Footlight Players, whose talent and “art” are presented on stage in the form of acting at the Footlight Theater.

The Footlight Players will be performing a moving musical adaptation of Michael Cunningham and Craig Marberry’s book “Crowns” by Regina Taylor. “CROWNS” will be performed from January 25th to February 10th.

During the production, sponsored by The Hat Ladies of Charleston, there will be a fundraising silent auction of paintings and photographs rendered by the members of the Charleston Artist Guild to benefit the Footlight Players Theater.

The theme, Hats, of course! All paintings and photographs contain a hat or hats within the composition. The artwork will be hung in the theater lobby and will be featured on the Hat Ladies web site: www.hatladies.org.

The Charleston Artist Guild is pleased to help support the Footlight Players Theater, as both have a long history of enriching the Charleston arts community, and our “hats off” to the Hat Ladies of Charleston for sponsoring this special event.

Performance dates are January 25, 26,27, 31 and February 1,2,7,8,9 and 10th; however art lovers may stop in at the theater to view the “Crowns” inspired paintings and photographs now on display. The Footlight Theater is located at 20 Queen Street.
